Living in God

A Pharisee, a lawyer or expert in the law, asks Jesus to identify which of the six hundred thirteen commandments is the most important, an issue that held considerable interest at the time. Jesus’ answer is faithful to his own Jewish faith. He endorses the summons that constitutes the Shema, the most significant prayer of the Israelite religion (see Deuteronomy 6:5). He insists that the love of God must occupy one’s entire being and not be simply a superficial allegiance. He then adds a second commandment, which is said to be like the first in importance. From this proclamation flows the responsibility to love God with one’s entire being and to love one’s neighbor as oneself.

♦ Does anything prevent you from responding to God’s love with all your heart, soul, and mind?
♦ Who is the neighbor who most needs your love at this time?
♦ What do you think God wants most from you?

Family Connection

Children learn about love from real, concrete examples witnessed in family life. We can help children to love God and love their neighbors by showing everyday acts of love, generosity, and kindness—our own expressions of our love for God. These acts, small and large, are the expression of what Jesus identified as the two greatest commandments: love God and love neighbor.

Make a poster together as a family. Write the words Love God in the center of the poster and write the words Love Neighbor near each of the four sides of the poster. Talk about how Jesus taught us that our love for God is revealed in the love that we show to other people. On the poster, use pictures and words to show some of the ways that your family shows their love for other people.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As you work your way through this maze, write the first letter of each picture inside the circles. Then write the letters in order onto the blanks. They’ll spell what God is and what God wants us to be, too!

“Pay to Caesar what is Caesar’s.” That means give to your city, county, state, and country the taxes they ask.

“Pay to God what is God’s.” This means you should give a part of what you make to God. He gives it back to you three times over. If you give one quarter, you get back an amount worthy three quarters or seventy-five cents. You can’t beat that for a bargain!

A Cheerful Thanks

St. Veronica Cheerleaders wish to “Thank” all the supporters that participated in last weekend’s can drive and car wash fundraisers. Both were a rousing success.

Funds help to defray costs incurred for this group and is greatly appreciated!

Roman Missal Translation Update

Since June, 2011 we have provided in our bulletin several articles focusing on the Liturgy of the Word and Liturgy of the Eucharist under the heading “Year of Renewal in Worship and Prayer.” These articles were presented to you as an introduction in preparation for the Roman Missal translation.

Our Music Ministry has also joined in the effort by gradually introducing the new sung Mass settings, so you can fully and confidently participate in praise and glory by the first Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011. Words to the new text for the sung parts have been provided to you in the front and back covers of our missals found in the pews.

Please know the new words to our prayers will also be provided to you in the new missals and in the handy reference pew cards we will make available.

In this bulletin issue, please find Part I of the revised prayers noting the old and new text.
